24TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Introduction: Only human beings set limits to what they will give and forgive. This is partly because we live in time, and time makes us set limits to what we do and give to each other. Eternity is without limits.

Entrance Antiphon: Give peace, O Lord, to those who wait for you, that your prophets be found true. Hear the prayers of your servant, and of your people Israel.

Communion Antiphon: How precious is your mercy, O God! The children of men seek shelter in the shadow of your wings.

Readers: Haddock Family (both readings); Colou Caro, Matthew Ingram; Susan Cannons.

Next week: 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time. (Year A)

Readers: S Davies, J Russell; P Keenan, M McKenzie; S Zeglin, M Crowe.

Priests' Retirement Fund: Thank you for supporting the Priests' Retirement Foundation Father's Day Appeal. Through your gift, they are able to continue in their mission to provide care for the growing number of sick and retired priests in the Archdiocese of Sydney. (Should you wish to donate please use envelopes on the pews).

At our Vigil Mass this weekend, the Dempsey Medal will be presented to long-time parishioner Shirley Hassett to honour her outstanding service to the parish. Shirley was a member of the Altar Society for over 50 years, and coordinator until very recently; she was a catechist for over 30 years (a favourite with the Kinders), becoming a Life Member of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine in 2009; and she has been welcoming us all to the Vigil Mass for many years, handing us the bulletin and a hymn book, organising a family to do the Offertory Procession and the collectors, and distributing the Catholic Weekly round the church. We congratulate & thank Shirley, and hope she is with us for many years to come!

Established in 2017, the Dempsey Medal is awarded by the Archbishop of Sydney to acknowledge those whose diligence and efforts within their parish deserve special recognition. Parishioner Jim Taylor will receive the Medal next Sunday 20 September at our 10.00am Mass.
